Biographical Profile for William F. Fritz, Esq.

Mr. Fritz is originally from Illinois and received his Bachelor of Science degree with honors for his study of history at the University of Chicago in 1982, followed by MBA studies at Arizona State University in 1983 and his law degree from UCLA School of Law in 1986. He has practiced law in Sonoma County, California from 1987 to the present day with emphasis in business and litigation in construction disputes, leases and contracts, unfair competition and trade secret litigation, real property disputes, and various other areas of transactional work and litigation. In approximately 2005, he expanded his practice to include estate planning for business owners.

His approximate 20 years of continuous litigation practice includes successful jury trials, bench trials, arbitrations, and numerous other dispute resolution procedures, as well as volunteer work as an arbitrator in judicial arbitrations, mediator, judge pro tem for small claims court, and fee arbitrator for the Sonoma County Bar Association.

His civic involvement includes service on the Board of Directors for the North Bay Regional Center and, in his earlier years, past president of the Sonoma County Young Lawyers Association, and remains a member in good standing with the State and Local Bars.
